Beyond polarization, public preferences suggest policy opportunities to address aging, dying, and family caregiving

Byock IR, Corbeil YJ, Goodrich ME. American journal of hospice and palliative medicine 2009; 26(3):200-208

ARTICLE IDENTIFIERS

DOI: 10.1177/1049909108328700

PMID: 19136642 PMCID: not available

JOURNAL IDENTIFIERS

LCCN: 90660226 pISSN: 1049-9091 eISSN: 1938-2715 OCLC ID: 21269606 CONS ID: not available

US National Library of Medicine ID: 9008229

This article was identified from a query of the SafetyLit database.