

Beyond polarization, public preferences suggest policy opportunities to address aging, dying, and family caregiving

Byock IR, Corbeil YJ, Goodrich ME.

American journal of hospice and palliative medicine

2009; 26(3):200-208

ARTICLE IDENTIFIERS

DOI: 10.1177/1049909108328700

PMID: 19136642

PMCID: not available

JOURNAL IDENTIFIERS

LCCN: 90660226

pISSN: 1049-9091

eISSN: 1938-2715

OCLC ID: 21269606

CONS ID: not available

US National Library of Medicine ID: 9008229

This article was identified from a query of the SafetyLit database.