Keep your bias to yourself: how deliberating with differently biased others affects mock-jurors' guilt decisions, perceptions of the defendant, memories, and evidence interpretation

Ruva CL, Guenther CC. Law and human behavior 2017; 41(5):478-493

ARTICLE IDENTIFIERS

DOI: 10.1037/lhb0000256

PMID: 28714733 PMCID: not available

JOURNAL IDENTIFIERS

LCCN: 77641812 pISSN: 0147-7307 eISSN: 1573-661X OCLC ID: 03173559 CONS ID: not available

US National Library of Medicine ID: 7801255

This article was identified from a query of the SafetyLit database.